

"From Experience to Understanding and Discovery"
— University of Toyama, School of Economics—
5-Day Short Program

1. Purpose

- A) Experience real undergraduate classes in economics and law and seminars.
- B) Observe graduate-level (master's) classes and understand academic thinking and research processes.
- C) Discover how undergraduate learning connects to graduate-level study, focusing on research and data literacy.

2. Target Participants

- A) 8 students from our overseas partner universities.
- B) Please recommend 1~3 candidates from each university.
- C) Classes are mainly in Japanese, with English support available.

3. Duration

Five program days, with a weekend in between. (8:45-18:00 each day)

4. Format

Participation in undergraduate basic courses, observation of graduate school classes, seminars and company tours.

5. Schedule (subject to minor changes depending on the course availability)

Day 1 (Mon), Dec 7: Arrival and Check-in

Day 2 (Tue), Dec 8: Orientation × Introduction to Research

AM Orientation (Japanese & English)

- A) Office Procedures
- B) Watching videos about Toyama Prefecture

PM: Understanding Graduate Studies

- A) Graduate School Guidance (Japanese & English)
- B) Campus tour (Japanese & English)

Day 3 (Wed), Dec 9: Japanese University Class Observation × Graduate Class Experience

AM: Observation of Japanese University Classes
(Conducted in Japanese with English support)

PM: Graduate Seminar / Lecture

(Conducted in Japanese with English support)

Day 4 (Thu), Dec 10: Cultural Experience × Company Visit

- Company visits in Toyama.

Day 5 (Fri), Dec 11: Undergraduate Classes

- Undergraduate Classes

(Japanese – Experience real Japanese university classes!)

Day 6 (Mon), Dec 14: Final Presentations × Ceremony

AM: Presentation Preparation (Japanese or English)

PM: Final Presentation (Japanese or English) / Closing Ceremony

Day 7 (Tue), Dec 15: Departure

※ Return keys via post box (no assistance provided)